SUCCESSFUL TOURS.

Roosevelt Makes Nine Speeches Closing at Utica, and Bryan Winds up at Wilmington After Speaking Seventeen Times.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Governor Roosevelt's campaigning in New York state Wednesday embraced several new features. At nearly every place at which he stopped there were large crowds of people. In this city at night the day's work ended with a review of an immense demonstration. During the day he made nine speeches, some of them extremely long ones, while traveling through the counties of Chenango, Madison and Oneida.

The feature of the day's trip was the meeting here of United States Senator Depew and the grouping together upon one stage in this city within the period of three hours of ex-Comptroller of the Currency Eckels, Senator Depew and Governor Roosevelt. The third feature was a preconcerted attempt at Rome to compel Governor Roosevelt to answer questions concerning the letter of Mayor Van Wyck, the prosecution of the ice trust, the prosecution of the alleged canal thieves and others relating to the office of governor.

That this attempt was preconcerted is assured from the fact that men in the crowd, asked questions, holding in their hands, printed slips and upon the failure to compel the candidate to answer, numbers of these slips were thrown into his carriage. The governor positively declined to give any expression of opinion as to the circulars or their authorship to answer any of the questions contained in them.

With the exception of a short stop of half an hour at Herkimer, where a brief address was made, the culminating speeches of the day were at two immense meetings in this city.

Roosevelt's Journey Resumed.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 25.—The Roosevelt special railway train pulled out of here at 8:30 o'clock this morning. The itinerary for the day was a curious one, the jumps being long, taking the party from Utica away over to Watertown, thence back through Weedsport to Auburn and then down to Syracuse. The time devoted to speechmaking was an hour each at Watertown, Oswego and Auburn.

CROWDS TO SEE BRYAN.

Immense Throng Gather at Philadelphia to Welcome Him There.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—Bryan arrived here this morning from Wilmington, Del., where he spent the night after his big trip through a portion of Maryland and Delaware Wednesday. Bryan was escorted by the Democratic city committee of Philadelphia. When he arrived at Broad street station of the Pennsylvania railroad he was greeted by a mass of people that jammed the place so completely that there was scarcely room for for his party to make their way to the street. The streets surrounding the station were also crowded with thousands of people to see the Democratic candidate.

Mr. Bryan was taken to the hotel close to the station for a rest of a couple of hours before beginning his tour of New Jersey. Here, however, thousands crowded Broad street, cheering and exhibiting much enthusiasm. As soon as Mr. Bryan reached the quarters assigned to him the hotel was filled with men desirous of greeting him and an impromptu reception began, which precluded all thought of rest for him.

Bryan was escorted from the hotel to the balcony on the second floor of the Times building, where he made a short speech. Thousands of people crowded the streets and cheered him.

BRYAN IN DELAWARE.

He Finishes His Day's Speaking in Wilmington With Two Addresses.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 25.—Mr. Bryan made two speeches at some length in this city last night, after having made 17 other addresses during the day. Beginning at St. Michaels on the eastern shore of Maryland, he spoke at Easton, Preston, Murdock, Vienna, Salisbury and Berlin, all of which places are in Maryland, and at Frankford, Georgetown, Milford, Harrington, Dover, Clayton, Middleton, Kirkwood and Newcastle in Delaware.

The audiences of the day were as a rule fair sized and a majority of them were thoroughly appreciative.

At a few of the stopping places in Delaware there was apparent lack of enthusiasm.

The first of Mr. Bryan's night meetings in this city was held in a big tent. Mr. Bryan did not appear until 9 o'clock, having taken a prolonged rest.

The tent was crowded to suffocation and there were far more people on the outside and its immediate vicinity than there were on the inside of the canvass.

The great crowd yelled itself hoarse when Mr. Bryan entered, and some time required to secure quiet. He took cognizance of a series of questions propounded to him by John P. Nields of this city. He answered these questions and asked five others and requested that some responsible person answer them.

MORE ABOUT ALVORD.

Nothing to Substantiate That He Gambled to Any Great Extent.

New York, Oct. 25.—In apartments that cost $20 a month, on the third floor of a flat in Harlem, live the father and mother of the wife of Cornelius Alvord, the defaulting bank teller. They are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benedict. The Benedicts are simple folks and poor. They make no pretenses and live within the salary paid the old husband as book-keeper in a butchering establishment. Mr. and Mrs. Benedict have seen little of their only daughter in the last several years. She seldom came to see them, so it is asserted. In fact, neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Benedict thought them childishness. They attributed the devotion they showed on each other to the fact that they had no children.

It was 12 years ago that Alvord married Jennie Benedict, then a handsome blond of 23 living with her father and mother on East One Hundred and Twelfth street. Alvord was a steady, hard working fellow, the father of the girl thought. His daughter, according to his way of thinking, was making an excellent match. No one ever said Alvord was dissipated then. He was not known to have a single bad habit. His sole ambition was centered in business. That he cared nothing for society was shown by his marrying a poor girl, who was a stranger to even the social set in which he, the bank clerk, was recognized.

Alvord's social ambition and his love for extravagance is believed to have taken root when he gave a reception to his bride in the flat in which they lived shortly after their marriage. All officers of the First National bank were invited to this reception. This, it is said, was the only time Cashier Reed and other bank officials ever saw or met Mrs. Alvord. Mrs. Alvord became ambitious socially shortly after her marriage. Alvord's business ambition then changed to social ambition. Alvord lived up to his salary the first few years of his married life. That he loved his wife and was ambitious for her sake in a social sense was shown by the way he showered money on her.

Betting men of local race tracks say Alvord could not possibly have lost any great amount of money on the track, even if he bet through commissioners without his identity being discovered. To lose anything approximating the sum of Alvord's defalcation, while keeping his name secret, they declared, was impossible. Even had he bet through commissioners, the placing of large sums would have attracted attention and book-makers who pay men specially to keep them informed of what is going on and who was betting, must have learned whence the commissioner came.

Of Mrs. Alvord's visits to tracks, it is said she frequently occupied a box at more important courses, though seldom accompanied by her husband. She bet on races—of that men who knew her were sure—but they did not know she bet any large amounts and as her bets were always placed by regular race-track messengers, it is assumed the wagers did not reach extraordinary size. When Alvord was with his wife he usually bet from $25 to $50 on each race.

Prominent sporting men in the Tenderloin laugh at the suggestion that Alvord could have lost $500,000 or even half that amount in gambling houses and poolrooms without becoming widely known. They declare he certainly could not have confined his operations to one place and won or lost a fifth of it in a reasonable length of time and have avoided gossips that are always numerous around the green cloth and the wheel.

Three steamships left New York last Saturday, the day Alvord is known to have disappeared, on any of which he might have booked as a passenger under an assumed name. These steamships were the Mexico, bound for Cuba; Captain Frio, for Hamburg and the Amsterdam, for Rotterdam. The Mexico landed at Havana Wednesday and word was received by detectives that Alvord was not on board. When the other two ships arrive at their destinations every passenger will be examined. His whereabouts is still unknown.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The division of customs and insular affairs of the war department has made public a general statement covering the trade of the Philippine islands for the first nine months of the fiscal year ended June 30 last. The statement shows that the total merchandise, gold and silver imported during this period was $16,751,800 and exports $14,634,237.

The exportation of Manila hemp was valued at $3,106,340, of raw sugar $1,815,148, tobacco and its manufactures $1,522,071 and copra $607,055.

Of a total importation of $4,015,049 worth of cotton and its manufactures, the share from the United States was only $15,133.

Don't Want to Be Sold.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., Oct. 25.—Intense adverse feeling has been raised here by the renewal of the report that Denmark intends to sell the Danish Antilles to the United States. A meeting of the colonial council has been convoked at St. Croix for the purpose of making a formal protest. The newspapers discuss the question, declaring in bold type "we do not wish to be sold." There is no desire, much less enthusiasm, among the population to belong to the United States.

Piper Makes a Protest.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—William H. Piper on behalf of the Zion church has sent a telegram to President McKinley and Governor Nash of Ohio, protesting against the treatment of the representatives of the denomination at Mansfield, O., and appealing for their protection. Mr. Piper says in the telegram that these ministers have not broken a single statute of the state and that the right to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ is vouchsafed to them by the laws of Ohio and the constitution of the United States.

Another Line to El Paso.

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 24.—Articles of incorporation have been filed here for the El Paso, Pecos Valley and Eastern railway extending from Roswell to El Paso, Tex., a distance of 175 miles. J. J. Hagerman of Colorado Springs is president. The route is through Chavez, Eddy and Otero counties, New Mexico. This line will shorten the distance by rail between El Paso and Kansas City and Chicago about 200 miles. The survey is completed and the construction work will begin soon.

Piequart Wins His Suit.

Paris, Oct. 25.—Colonel Piequart's suit for libel against Le Journal arising from the Dreyfus polemics has been decided in his favor. The court condemned the manager of the paper, M. Pouch, to pay a fine of 3000 francs, and Mm. Pessien and Galli, the writers of the articles, were sentenced to six months imprisonment and a month's imprisonment respectively and all three were sentenced to pay 50,000 francs.

Mrs. Mary Allen Dead.

Cincinnati, Oct. 25.—In almost destitute circumstances, Mrs. Mary Allen died Wednesday in Covington, Ky. At one time she was the leading lady for Joseph Jefferson in "Rip Van Winkle," of which her husband was the author. She also played with the elder Booth and Lawrence Barrett, and also with John McCullough. She was pensioned by Mr. Jefferson and received monthly a certain sum from him.

Mitchell and the Strike.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 25.—President Mitchell will issue a statement today defining the position of the United Mine Workers in the strike. His statement will indicate whether the strike would be immediately declared off or whether it would be continued. The impression around the headquarters is that the statement will contain practically a decision that the contest is ended.

Heavy Rain in Galveston.

Galveston, Oct. 25.—Beginning at 9 o'clock last night a heavy rain fell until midnight. The gutters were filled with water and it was made difficult to get around town. It was a steady down-pour, unaccompanied by electricity or wind. With so many roofs wanting repairs, considerable damage resulted and many families were made to suffer.

Extradition Treaty Approved.

Lima, Peru, Oct. 25.—The senate, in secret session, approved the extradition treaty with the United States with a slight amendment fixing $300 as the minimum limit of the sum allowing extradition. It is understood the government will approve Charles E. Stone as Peruvian consul at New York. He was formerly Peruvian consul at San Francisco.

Switchman Killed.

Tyler, Tex., Oct. 25.—John T. Coleman, a switchman in the Cotton Belt yards, was killed here by the cars, his body being cut almost in two. It is thought he fell between the cars. Deceased's family lived at Marshall, where he leaves a widow and three children. The remains were taken there for interment.

Mexican Badly Wounded.

San Angelo, Tex., Oct. 25.—Two Mexicans were brought to town and lodged in jail on a charge of having shot a fellow countryman at the Metcalfe ranch, 10 miles south of town. The wounded Mexican was shot in the stomach and is reported to be in a very dangerous condition.

Cotton Salvage at Galveston.

Galveston, Oct. 25.—Of 20,000 bales of cotton in cars on wharves and otherwise involved in the Galveston storm, 19,000 have been recovered and all but 600 of them have been identified. This is considered very remarkable salvage.

That industrial league for Bryan is an important matter and worthy careful attention, notwithstanding this is the busy season. Don't let the idea escape you.

It is useless to preach politics to the people of Texas. They are going to vote right all along the line, even to the weeding out of the only republican congressional district in the state.

The surveying corps of the Calvert, Waco and Brazos Valley railway arrived in Navasota Wednesday. Their line missed the city cemetery by about fifty feet and continues through one of the most important business thoroughfares there, crossing the main street about the center.

The problem of enlarging the White House without destroying the noble lines of the present historic mansion or subordinating it, is successfully solved in the November Ladies' Home Journal. The plans presented by Col. Theodore A. Bingham, the government official in charge of the White House, provide for an imposing building, comporting with our national dignity, and offering the president ample office space and living room under one roof.

A writer in the Galveston News makes the following timely and sensible observations: "This country bears too good a record in agricultural statistics not to come to the front. Rains, drouths and storms, with their disastrous effects, visit all sections in turn, and it is folly to run when they do come. The man who runs from section to section to escape such calamities or visitations is most generally kept on the move, and is seldom in the right locality when a prosperous year comes. But the man who holds his position, and stays with his county in both disastrous and prosperous years is sure to win in the end. All who are familiar with north and south Texas know that the two sections are somewhat, in seasons, like the boy's see-saw horse. The two ends alternate in rising and falling. If next year should prove to be a good crop year with us many of those who are continually running from hard times, will be coming back and pursuing their search for good times. Many do not remain in one place long enough for prosperous times to overtake them."

SHERMAN'S REMAINS.

They Are Laid to Rest in the Family Vault at Mansfield.

Mansfield, O., Oct. 25.—From the quaint little Episcopal church, where as a youth he worshiped, John Sherman was buried here today. Up a narrow aisle, which through long years he lead as a vestryman, the remains of former United States senator and a cabinet member was carried to the chancel, where they rested from shortly before 11 o'clock until nearly 8, when they were removed to their last resting place in the Sherman family vault in the cemetery here.

In Memory of John Sherman.

Columbus, O., Oct. 25.—The Republican campaign in Ohio was at a standstill today as a tribute of respect to the memory of John Sherman, whose funeral occurred at Mansfield in the afternoon. The order by Secretary Dick of the Republican state executive committee is regarded as unique in political annals of Ohio, but all meetings were either declared off or postponed and the Democrats had the field to themselves for a day. The state offices in the capitol building were closed during the afternoon.

Hail Destroys Grass.

Colorado, Tex., Oct. 25.—Reports have reached here of a very severe hail storm in Garza county, north of here. The grass on about 38 sections of land has been entirely destroyed in the Square and Compass Cattle company's pasture and many antelope were killed. No cattle were on the range at the time, that portion of the pasture having been reserved for winter.

A freighter named Brown was caught in it and had one horse killed and another badly crippled, so much so as to render it permanently useless. The hail was at least two feet deep in many places after the storm had passed.

Alexander Bond Forfeited.

Dallas, Oct. 25.—The case of the state of Texas vs. C. H. Alexander charged by indictment with arson and accessory to arson, was again called in the criminal district court Wednesday having been postponed until that time on account of the illness of the defendant. The defendant again failed to put in an appearance and his bond was declared forfeited and judgment nisi entered against him and his sureties for $7000, and an alias capias being issued for his arrest.

Was No Infringement.

Waco, Tex., Oct. 25.—In the circuit court of the United States here in the suit styled J. M. Beavers vs. Charles A. Richardson & Co., the jury brought in a verdict for the defendant. That's the kind you would do well to let alone. Others are made from the choicest materials, much care is given to the work, skilled labor is employed, and much money is spent in making them right—that's the kind that gives health, brain end brawn; you will find that kind in the list below:

Graham Flour 5 lb package 25c;
Cracked Wheat 2 lb package 35c;
Grains of Gold 5 lb package 25c;
Farina 1 lb package 10c, 3 for 25c;
Quaker Oats 2 lb package 15c, 3 for 25c;

CRITICISING ROBERTS.

His Leniency in South Africa Condemned by the Smart Set.

WANT A NEW LEADER

They Say a Cold Blooded General Like Kitchener Is Needed to Suppress Guerrilla Warfare in the Transvaal Republic.

London, Oct. 25.—The revival of guerrilla warfare in South Africa, has lighted up English sentiment, especially in smart society, which is divided into military cliques and actions. General Roberts' leniency is condemned by impatient partisans as a source of weakness in South Africa, and the opinion is expressed that a general as cold blooded as Kitchener is needed to suppress the lawlessness now in progress. These critics make no secret of their discontent with General Roberts' methods of peace making.

There is a strong Buller clique in London which is circulating reports that he was offered by Lord Roberts the succession in command and that he will be rewarded for his services by advancement to the peerage. These partisans are most bitter in their references to Lord Roberts.

General Methuen also has warm friends who assert that he has not received fair treatment and there is a Gatacre group which resents his removal from command. There is almost a remnant of the "Wolsey gang" which clings to the old illusion that England has had only one general since the death of Wellington.

These evidences of ingratitude for the immense services rendered by Lord Roberts are confined without doubt, to military factions, and small social sets. The true national feeling will be disclosed when Lord Roberts returns, and it will be foreshadowed by the grand reception of the London volunteers on Saturday, which promises to be a revel of good humor and patriotic rejoicing.

Roberts' Departure.

London, Oct. 25.—The war office announces that General Roberts hopes to leave South Africa for home about Nov. 15.

Convicted of Murder.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—Henry Ivory, the negro charged with complicity in the brutal murder of Prof. Ray Wilson White, the law instructor of the University of Pennsylvania, has been convicted of murder in the first degree. Prof. White was murdered with a railroad coupling pin and robbed on the street on Saturday night, May 19. Ivory, Amos Stirling and Charles Perry, all negroes, were arrested. Ivory and Perry made confessions accusing Stirling of having committed the murder. They admitted having shared in the property stolen from Prof. White's person. Stirling and Perry are yet to be tried.

Will Not Deny or Affirm.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—E. H. Harriman, chairman of the board of directors of the Chicago and Alton road, who attended the conference of directors and officials of the roads in which he was interested, has returned east. Before leaving he would neither deny or affirm the report that the Pacific Mail Steamship company had been secured by a syndicate headed by himself and W. K. Vanderbilt. He stated emphatically, however, that he is not to be president nor hold any official position with the Pacific Mail Steamship company.

After Part of Florida.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 25.—Secretary of State McDavid has taken the first step toward the annexing of west Florida to Alabama. In his annual report to the governor, the secretary of state says Alabama runs one mile further south on the eastern boundary than track books have heretofore shown and that the state is possessed of a wedge of land which his office records fail to show it owned running 100 miles along the southern end of the state.

ONE MORE EFFORT.

The Integrity of China Is Secretary Hay's Main Aim Now.

Washington, Oct. 25.—In his response to the British and German governments regarding the Anglo-German agreement Secretary Hay is likely to make another effort to induce all powers to join in an agreement for the maintenance of the integrity of China and the preservation of the open door.

It is believed at Washington that France and Russia will not decline to join in such a declaration and in view of the Anglo-German reiteration of the principles of the integrity of China and the "open door" the London and Berlin governments could hardly avoid assenting to such a proposal.

Italy and Austria, which have assented to the Anglo-German agreement, would, of course, follow the lead of the German emperor.

Germany Agrees With Japan.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Germany has agreed to Japan's proposition for peace. The proposal is that negotiations with China be entrusted to the foreign representatives at Peking.

Only Two Have Accepted.

London, Oct. 25.—Foreign office officials informed a representative of the Associated Press that thus far only Italy and Austria have accepted the Anglo-German agreement, but it was added the assent of the United States, Russia and France were confidently expected.

Authorized to Begin Negotiations.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Minister Conger has been authorized to begin negotiations at once with Chinese envoys on the basis of points in the French and German notes upon which all powers are agreed. Upon the points where a divergence of views are found to exist the governments will negotiate with a view to reaching a further understanding.

Not Entitled to Increase.

Washington, Oct. 25.—In the case of W. H. Block and 17 other acting assistant surgeons of the United States army, the comptroller of the treasury has held that the contract surgeon is neither an officer nor an enlisted man and not entitled to 10 per cent increase in pay under the contract of May 26, 1900.

Roosevelt's first stop was at Camden. A heavy fog hung over the country and Roosevelt made his speech very brief, fearing to injure his voice.

Prince Chigi Fined.

Rome, Oct. 25.—Prince Chigi, who was prosecuted by the Italian government for selling a painting by Botticelli which is now in London, has been ordered to pay a fine for violating the law against selling valued works of art for exportation, the sum of 315,000 lire, which was the price paid for the picture. The purchaser, who was summoned to appear before the tribunal, but was in default, was condemned conjointly with Prince Chigi.

Convicts in Texas.

Austin, Oct. 25.—The monthly report of Superintendent Rice of the state penitentiary for the month of September, just approved by the board, shows 418 convicts on hand on Sept. 30. At the opening of the month there were 556 and during the month 43 new convicts were received. During the same period 111 were discharged, 11 pardoned, 27 escaped, 30 died and 2 were delivered to sheriffs.
